Ascension of the Lord

ASCENSION: the act of rising to a higher level

The Ascension of the Lord takes place forty days after the resurrection of Jesus (Easter). Technically, this day falls on a Thursday, but the celebration is transferred to the following Sunday. On this day, Jesus was taken up to Heaven in his resurrected body in the presence of his apostles.

BIBLICAL REFERENCES

- While he was blessing them, he withdrew from them and was carried up into heaven. Luke 24:51
- So then the Lord Jesus, after he had spoken to them, was taken up into heaven and sat down at the right hand of God. Mark 16:19
- As the apostles were watching, Jesus was lifted up and a cloud took him out of their sight. While he was going and they were gazing up toward heaven, suddenly two men in white robes stood by them. They said, "Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking up toward heaven? This Jesus, who has been taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same way as you saw him go into heaven." Acts 1:9-11
- The ascension is also professed in the Nicene Creed and in the Apostles' Creed. "He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father..." Pope Francis, June 1, 2014
